Dear John:

When I wrote that, I had just stuck my nose into a pint bottle of one of Samuel Smith's (Tadcaster Yorks) brews.

Very tasty, and not entirely unlike Samuel Adams brews from Boston. Rather pricey however in California. [I keep some Coors for the very hottest of days.]

To get to the point, by the time the sun came up I was having difficulty watering the lawn with a simple hose and sprinkler ..
now maybe that's just me.

A crop circle would have been out of the question in my particular case.

Best wishes

- Larry Hatch
