Hey everyone,

Want to get space news that's current up to the minute? I've just deployed RealTime News on the exosci.com website. exoScience now offers links to space news stories all across the internet, and these stories are updated in RealTime every 10 minutes of the day!

Catch news as it happens!

Also, exoScience is now linked with My Netscape, a wonderful customizable website at:

<http://my.netscape.com/>

You can add exoScience news to your customized homepage (you must have a Netscape account first) by going to:

Thanks,

Dave Watanabe
