>>Apology to MW #301 (For May 1, 1999)

>>David -- Goliath. Still fighting it seems. One's over-cocky, the other is steamed. One strides the mainstream opposed by too few; his erstwhile opponent's courageously new. One narrows scope to a slender percentage, the other is open to data with vintage. >>One is a scoffer with knee jerk dismissals; the other's employing some truth as his missiles.

>Hi,

>It was a terrific debate, wasn't it? I was amazed at how easily Stan won...and it was clearly going that direction right from the getgo. >Just astounding (and frustrating) how quickly the argument could be won if mainstreamers would simply "listen."

>[sender withheld]

Also amazing, [name withheld], is how little credit he's getting for it, even from us. I think that's astonishing.
