Subject: UFOINFO Web Site Down

Dear Errol and List Members,

A brief message to say that the UFOINFO web site is currently unavailable due to 'a malicious hacker attack' on the company that hosts the site (web-hosting.com).

Technicians are currently working on re-installing the server software and operating system, this will take at least an entire day, and then they can begin a full restore.

Please note I am NOT claiming that the UFOINFO site was deliberately hacked <g> as several Unix servers were attacked, which included the web-hosting.com main site.

Current status reports for anyone interested can be found at <http://web-hosting.com/news.html>

Hope to be back soon....

John Hayes
